Housing and Dining Refund FAQs

Does mean that I will definitely not get a refund of my unused housing and dining fees if we move to remote learning this fall?
No. This is just stating that it is possible you will not get a refund. There are many factors, including the availability of state and federal resources, that will impact the decision. WSSU will be working under the guidance of the UNC System on this.

Is WSSU the only school with this approach to housing and dining refunds?
No. This is guidance from the UNC System. All UNC System schools have been advised to follow this approach.

If you decide to move to remote learning before the semester starts, will you still keep my housing money?
No. If we move to remote learning before the semester starts, you will receive a full refund of your housing and dining fees.

Can I cancel my housing based on this information?
Yes. We are allowing students who have registered for housing AND who have completed the requirement to live on campus for two years to cancel for the 2020-21 academic year. The cancellation fee will be waived through July 31.

Students who have not yet completed the two-year live-on requirement who wish to request an exemption can do so by completing an Exemption Application. After your exemption is approved, you can cancel your housing.

Does this impact commuter dining plans?
Yes, this impacts commuter dining plans. Again, this is not a definitive statement that there will not be refunds. It is simply an acknowledgement that we may not be in a position to give refunds based on the availability of state and federal funds.
