DEPENDENCY OVERRIDE APPLICATION INFORMATION— PLEASE READ IN ITS ENTIRETY

1. What is a Dependency Override?

A Dependency Override occurs when a Financial Aid administrator overrides the requirement for parent information due to extreme circumstances, such as documented abuse or abandonment by the parent. A Dependency Override at Winston-Salem State University (WSSU) is determined on a case-by-case basis depending on the situation, the supporting documentation provided, and whether the situation is reason enough for a student to be considered independent rather than dependent. Dependency Override applications must be approved each academic year.

2. Who is a parent for financial aid purposes?

Your biological/adoptive mother and father are considered your parents. Grandparents, foster parents, and legal guardians are not considered parents, unless they have legally adopted you. If a person has adopted you, they are your legal parent.

3. What makes a student dependent or independent? Under the Higher Education Act of 1965 as amended, the U.S. Congress established thirteen criteria for determining a student's dependency status, based on answers to the following questions as of the date of the student's initial FAFSA application.

1. Were you born before January 1, 2001?
2. As of the date you filed the FAFSA, were you married? (Answer "Yes" if you are separated but not divorced.)
3. At the beginning of the 2025-2026 school year, will you be in a master's or doctoral program (such as an MBA, PhD, etc.)?
4. Are you currently serving on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces for purposes other than training?
5. Are you a veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces?
6. Do you have children who will receive more than half of their financial support from you from July 1, 2025 and through June 30, 2026?
7. Do you have dependents (other than your children or spouse) who live with you and will receive more than half of their support from you now through June 30, 2026?

Note: The following require specific documentation if you answer "Yes":

8. When you were age 13 or older, were both your parents deceased, were you in foster care, were you a dependent/ward of the court?
9. As of today, are you an emancipated minor as determined by a court in your state of legal residence?
10. As of today, are you in legal guardianship as determined by a court in your state of legal residence?
11. On or after July 1, 2024 did your high school or school district homeless liaison determine you were an unaccompanied homeless youth?
12. At any time on or after July 1, 2024 did the director of an emergency shelter program funded by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development determine that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless?
13. At any time on or after July 1, 2024 did the director of a runaway or homeless youth basic center or transitional living program determine that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless or were self-supporting and at risk of being homeless?

4. What conditions do not merit a Dependency Override?

None of the conditions below, separately or in combination, qualify as unusual circumstances or merit a Dependency Override:

- 5 Parents refuse to provide information on the FAFSA or during the Verification process.
- 5 Parents do not claim the student as a dependent for income tax purposes.
- 5 Parents refuse to contribute to a student's education (i.e. pay tuition/fees, room/board, or books and supplies).
- 5 A dependent student who demonstrates self-sufficiency (i.e. has a job, does not live at home, etc.).
- 5 A student who does not wish to communicate with parents.
- 5 A student previously considered independent for financial aid purposes, but who is not meeting the 2025-2026 FAFSA definition.

5. What happens next?

Once we receive all the documentation required, your application will be reviewed by the Financial Aid Counselor and upper Leadership.

If additional documentation is required you will be notified via WSSU email only. Documents must be sent within 20 business days from the date of the email notification.

If your appeal is approved, your FAFSA will be processed as an independent student. If your appeal is denied, you will be required to correct your FAFSA with parental information and a parent signature.

6. What can you do if your parents refuse to help?

The U.S. Department of Education provides guidance to financial aid administrators that neither parent refusal to contribute to the student's education or to provide information on the FAFSA or for Verification is sufficient grounds for a dependency override, even if the parents do not claim the student as a dependent for income tax purposes or the student demonstrates self-sufficiency. It is an unfortunate reality that parent refusal may prevent students from paying for their education until they meet the independent student definition.

Here is some advice on how to help educate your parents better:

- First try to encourage your biological/adoptive parents to complete the FAFSA. Remind your parents that submitting their information on the FAFSA does not obligate them to pay your bill or provide you support, but their refusal will prevent you from receiving financial aid.
- If your parents are concerned about privacy, remind them that the confidentiality of student records, including financial aid information, is protected by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). The WSSU Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships does not share parent information with the student without the parents' consent.
